Twitch Channel is being revived! If you want to get involved, but are too scared to stream, you can become a mod!

Previously mentioned beginner stream info package - is that still coming? Yes!

How do we know you've gone live? There are announcements posted to the #video_feed channel in discord

Can we get pinged?

A couple thoughts - turn on notifs for #video_feed or turn on twitch notifs for NGSO

Old Business

There is no old business.

New Business

Evan motions to discuss our new opportunity to engage with Sacred Heart University.

Alan seconds.

From Evan's Availability Form

Hello crew. Big news! We've been offered to use the space in the brand new Sacred Heart University Bandroom starting around August. Big thanks to Mikey G for finding us this incredible opportunity!

Here's what you need to know:

At the current moment, we are NOT considering changing our current rehearsal venue to Sacred Heart.

We are most interested in how we could use this space in addition to our normal Tuesday rehearsals

*The timeslot we would be able to use the space would be Sunday nights, 7:30pm - 10:00pm
The purpose of this form is to gauge interest/availability to determine how often we would use the new space. Please answer the following questions under the assumption that the NGSO keeps it's routine three Tuesday rehearsals a month in Norwalk.*

Jared says this is awesome! Helps to bring people in that are not available on Tuesdays.

He has a question - is there a cost associated with this?

Evan answers - this is free of charge! As long as we use the space.

Paul asks - Would this be our first Sunday rehearsal?

Sam says yes!

Alan asks - where is it?

It is Sacred Heart University in Fairfield, CT.

Nick has a question and a comment.

Is it something we can rehearse in?

Sam answers - it's a separate rehearsal space.

Nick comments - he wishes he could be excited about having these instruments available for rehearsal purposes, but we cannot have them for all our performances.

Lexi asks - are we allowed to perform outside of opening for SHU? Would we be allowed to rent the hall?

Evan motions to close the floor.

Andy seconds.

Motion passes.

*Evan moves to adjourn the meeting.
Stephen seconds.
The motion passes.*
